“HOME GROWN AUSTIN”, OUR 61st ANNUAL PLANT SHOW AND SALE

Molly, Robert, and John

Club Cultivar Marigold

Making Fern Plaques for the sale

THE PLANT SHOW RESULTS

The Annual Plant Show and Sale was a rousing success thanks to the participation of many members. Dick Peterson chaired the Plant Show with Laura Joseph coordinating the afternoon speaker programs. Dwain Osborne designed a beautiful poster to encourage participation in the plant show. After the judging the 130 entries, Don and Pat Freeman received the Horticultural Excellence Award. Alice Mercurief and Dwaine Osbourne were the King and Queen of the Show, with Elaine Allan and the Freemans receiving the Prince and Princess awards. Robert Day and Laura Holland won the club cultivar awards.

THE PLANT SALE AND RESULTS

Robert Day chaired the plant sale with lots of assistance from Molly and Kay. Joe Yura contributed many beautiful plants, including flats of pentas, impatiens, and coleus. Laura Joseph and many helpers made 30 fern plaques for the sale. With all the other plants contributed by members, the plant sale raised $1810.45 for the club treasury.
